

VISIT THE CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT.

It's a bower of beauty—the most attractive spot in Kansas City. Mothers see here all the best and finest creations of the various markets of the world; have comfortable easy chairs for leisure examination, and plenty of light on all sides to show the goods as they really are. To miss seeing our Children's Department is to miss a treat. Prices are at the lowest penny possible for guaranteed satisfaction and service.

SHIRT WAISTS.

The Star, Mother's Friend and K. and E. brands in plain and fancy, blouse or waists, wide or narrow collars, round and square safters and all of this season's designing. Few of them are to be found at any other house in town; nowhere such variety. From

25 Cents to $3.00

And worth more in each case, based on prices now reigning.

UNDERWEAR.

Plain and fancy Ballbrigan, Gauze and Nain-sook, long and short sleeves, drawers, pantalettes or knickerbockers, the best and most complete line in town—

25c to 75c the Garment.

MAIL ORDERS

Are filled only when accompanied by the full amount of the goods ordered.

HOSIERY.

A decidedly strong point in favor of them is the price for the quality. Nowhere else will you do so well. Domestic, German, French and English makes, direct importations, in tans and black, all the way from 15c to 75c the Pair.

HATS AND CAPS.

Fedoras, Pashas, Stetson shapes, Derbys, Oxford and Newports. Novelty in caps—Glengary, extra large shape Tams, in leather or cloth, yachting, bicycle or golf caps. Anywhere from

25 Cents to $4.00.

NECKWEAR.

Variety almost without end as to pattern; made up in the latest of the new shapes—four-in-hands, puffis, dude bows, club house ties, six styles of teeks, wind-sors and refer bows, large and small shapes. Everything you could possibly desire is among them.

25c, 35c and 50c.

SAILOR SUITS.

Growing in favor and will be the thing for this season. Natty and most charmingly made—in modes, tans, Scotch plaids, with rough goods in the lead; chevrons, serges, outing cloths, from $1.00 to $10.00.

For ages 2½ to 10 years.

The Middy, Junior and Reefer Suits still retain popularity. Our line is so large and variegated that description would take pages of space. Over 200 styles should demonstrate how large and different the collection really is.

SCHOOL SUITS.

The Little Captain and the Little Governor lead all competitors. They have the double seat and double knee, are stoutly reinforced throughout with taped seams, stitched with silk and linen, and bear the guarantee of this house and the maker not to rip. If you can make one rip bring it back and get a new one in its stead. Every thread guaranteed all wool, and, while made for service, they are sightly and stylish.

$4.00 and $5.00.

CONFIRMATION SUITS

Ages 11 to 17—Handsome black Clay Worsteds, in the latest style of cutting and making—$8.00 to $15.00.

Kansas City's Foremost Clothiers,
Shoers, Hatters and Furnishers.

THE MODEL

SOUTHEAST CORNER OF TENTH AND MAIN STREETS.

Kansas City's Foremost Clothiers,
Shoers, Hatters and
Furnishers.

HILL AND ELKINS CLASH.

ACRIMONIOUS DEBATE IN THE SENATE YESTERDAY.

Mr. Hill Sharply Criticizes What He Terms a "Mean, Contemptible, Political Trick"—Other Senators Drawn Into the Bitter Controversy.

Washington, March 27.—The senate indulged in an acrimonious debate today, which developed much personal and party feeling and brought on two sharp personal exchanges between Mr. Hill and Mr. McKim, and between Mr. Brown and Mr. McKim. The controversy arose from Mr. Hill's motion to strike from the pending appropriation bill the provision changing the date of assembling the New Mexico legislature from December to May. Mr. Hill bitterly denounced the change as a "small, mean, contemptible, political trick," which had been "shoveled into" this appropriation bill, in order, as he claimed, to postpone the meeting of the legislature in the hope that a Republican president would be elected and the political control of the territory changed.

"What right have you to say 'mean'?" retorted Mr. McKim. "What authority have you for such a statement?"

"Ah," responded Mr. Hill, with a sneer, "I thought I'd stir up the senator from New Mexico. I see how the author of this plan, who on the minute is here to whisper in his ear in support of it. What mean to 'shoveled in' is that it is worthy that this political trick should be tried in connection with a great appropriation bill."

"But the senator has made a serious charge," persisted Mr. McKim. "Let him explain his explanation to assertion of 'shoveled in.' What does he mean by that?"

"I mean that it is a political trick, and I mean that it is a political trick, and I mean that it is a political trick," retorted Mr. Hill. "I have said it, and I have said it, and I have said it."

The senate asserted that appropriation bills should not be made "sweepers" to receive all the "scraps" everyone might seek to put into them.

Mr. McKim, in charge of the bill, said that he was surprised to find that Mr. Hill had referred to an appropriation bill as a "sweeping" bill.

Mr. McKim, in charge of the bill, said that he was surprised to find that Mr. Hill had referred to an appropriation bill as a "sweeping" bill.

Mr. McKim, in charge of the bill, said that he was surprised to find that Mr. Hill had referred to an appropriation bill as a "sweeping" bill.

Mr. McKim, in charge of the bill, said that he was surprised to find that Mr. Hill had referred to an appropriation bill as a "sweeping" bill.

Mr. McKim, in charge of the bill, said that he was surprised to find that Mr. Hill had referred to an appropriation bill as a "sweeping" bill.

Mr. McKim, in charge of the bill, said that he was surprised to find that Mr. Hill had referred to an appropriation bill as a "sweeping" bill.

PRIVATE BILLS IN THE HOUSE.

Congressmen Interested in Them Combined to Crowd Them in Ahead of the Sundry Appropriation Bill.

Washington, March 27.—The appropriations committee attempted to take up the sundry bill appropriation bill today, but the members who were interested in bills on the private calendar defeated them by a vote of 12 to 7. The members of the appropriations committee do not view their defeat as a failure, but as a delay. The committee is now working on the private calendar. The committee is now working on the private calendar. The committee is now working on the private calendar.

The committee is now working on the private calendar. The committee is now working on the private calendar. The committee is now working on the private calendar.

The committee is now working on the private calendar. The committee is now working on the private calendar. The committee is now working on the private calendar.

The committee is now working on the private calendar. The committee is now working on the private calendar. The committee is now working on the private calendar.

The committee is now working on the private calendar. The committee is now working on the private calendar. The committee is now working on the private calendar.

The committee is now working on the private calendar. The committee is now working on the private calendar. The committee is now working on the private calendar.

The committee is now working on the private calendar. The committee is now working on the private calendar. The committee is now working on the private calendar.

The committee is now working on the private calendar. The committee is now working on the private calendar. The committee is now working on the private calendar.

The committee is now working on the private calendar. The committee is now working on the private calendar. The committee is now working on the private calendar.

The committee is now working on the private calendar. The committee is now working on the private calendar. The committee is now working on the private calendar.

The committee is now working on the private calendar. The committee is now working on the private calendar. The committee is now working on the private calendar.

The committee is now working on the private calendar. The committee is now working on the private calendar. The committee is now working on the private calendar.

CRASHED INTO A STREET CAR.

Fire Reporter McCarthy's 25th Drive and Hudson Street-Louis Noyes Struck by the Car and Killed.

P. A. McCarthy, Kansas City's fire reporter, drove heading into a south-bound street car at Eleventh and Walnut streets last evening at 5 o'clock, the accident resulting most disastrously for the car. Only one man occupied a seat in the car at the time and aside from being well covered with broken glass and splinters of wood he was not injured.

Mr. McCarthy was driving west on Eleventh street at the time the accident occurred, having in the wagon with him Louis Noyes, superintendent of the Schwartzhill & Balabaner Packing Company, who had been turned from one of the buildings of this packing company, and pursued his drive, Reporter McCarthy, who was driving toward the scene of the fire with the fire engine, in case he should be needed.

Mr. McCarthy was driving west on Eleventh street at the time the accident occurred, having in the wagon with him Louis Noyes, superintendent of the Schwartzhill & Balabaner Packing Company, who had been turned from one of the buildings of this packing company, and pursued his drive, Reporter McCarthy, who was driving toward the scene of the fire with the fire engine, in case he should be needed.

Mr. McCarthy was driving west on Eleventh street at the time the accident occurred, having in the wagon with him Louis Noyes, superintendent of the Schwartzhill & Balabaner Packing Company, who had been turned from one of the buildings of this packing company, and pursued his drive, Reporter McCarthy, who was driving toward the scene of the fire with the fire engine, in case he should be needed.

Mr. McCarthy was driving west on Eleventh street at the time the accident occurred, having in the wagon with him Louis Noyes, superintendent of the Schwartzhill & Balabaner Packing Company, who had been turned from one of the buildings of this packing company, and pursued his drive, Reporter McCarthy, who was driving toward the scene of the fire with the fire engine, in case he should be needed.

Mr. McCarthy was driving west on Eleventh street at the time the accident occurred, having in the wagon with him Louis Noyes, superintendent of the Schwartzhill & Balabaner Packing Company, who had been turned from one of the buildings of this packing company, and pursued his drive, Reporter McCarthy, who was driving toward the scene of the fire with the fire engine, in case he should be needed.

Mr. McCarthy was driving west on Eleventh street at the time the accident occurred, having in the wagon with him Louis Noyes, superintendent of the Schwartzhill & Balabaner Packing Company, who had been turned from one of the buildings of this packing company, and pursued his drive, Reporter McCarthy, who was driving toward the scene of the fire with the fire engine, in case he should be needed.

Mr. McCarthy was driving west on Eleventh street at the time the accident occurred, having in the wagon with him Louis Noyes, superintendent of the Schwartzhill & Balabaner Packing Company, who had been turned from one of the buildings of this packing company, and pursued his drive, Reporter McCarthy, who was driving toward the scene of the fire with the fire engine, in case he should be needed.

Mr. McCarthy was driving west on Eleventh street at the time the accident occurred, having in the wagon with him Louis Noyes, superintendent of the Schwartzhill & Balabaner Packing Company, who had been turned from one of the buildings of this packing company, and pursued his drive, Reporter McCarthy, who was driving toward the scene of the fire with the fire engine, in case he should be needed.

Mr. McCarthy was driving west on Eleventh street at the time the accident occurred, having in the wagon with him Louis Noyes, superintendent of the Schwartzhill & Balabaner Packing Company, who had been turned from one of the buildings of this packing company, and pursued his drive, Reporter McCarthy, who was driving toward the scene of the fire with the fire engine, in case he should be needed.

Mr. McCarthy was driving west on Eleventh street at the time the accident occurred, having in the wagon with him Louis Noyes, superintendent of the Schwartzhill & Balabaner Packing Company, who had been turned from one of the buildings of this packing company, and pursued his drive, Reporter McCarthy, who was driving toward the scene of the fire with the fire engine, in case he should be needed.

Mr. McCarthy was driving west on Eleventh street at the time the accident occurred, having in the wagon with him Louis Noyes, superintendent of the Schwartzhill & Balabaner Packing Company, who had been turned from one of the buildings of this packing company, and pursued his drive, Reporter McCarthy, who was driving toward the scene of the fire with the fire engine, in case he should be needed.

CRASHED INTO A STREET CAR.

Fire Reporter McCarthy's 25th Drive and Hudson Street-Louis Noyes Struck by the Car and Killed.

P. A. McCarthy, Kansas City's fire reporter, drove heading into a south-bound street car at Eleventh and Walnut streets last evening at 5 o'clock, the accident resulting most disastrously for the car. Only one man occupied a seat in the car at the time and aside from being well covered with broken glass and splinters of wood he was not injured.

Mr. McCarthy was driving west on Eleventh street at the time the accident occurred, having in the wagon with him Louis Noyes, superintendent of the Schwartzhill & Balabaner Packing Company, who had been turned from one of the buildings of this packing company, and pursued his drive, Reporter McCarthy, who was driving toward the scene of the fire with the fire engine, in case he should be needed.

Mr. McCarthy was driving west on Eleventh street at the time the accident occurred, having in the wagon with him Louis Noyes, superintendent of the Schwartzhill & Balabaner Packing Company, who had been turned from one of the buildings of this packing company, and pursued his drive, Reporter McCarthy, who was driving toward the scene of the fire with the fire engine, in case he should be needed.

Mr. McCarthy was driving west on Eleventh street at the time the accident occurred, having in the wagon with him Louis Noyes, superintendent of the Schwartzhill & Balabaner Packing Company, who had been turned from one of the buildings of this packing company, and pursued his drive, Reporter McCarthy, who was driving toward the scene of the fire with the fire engine, in case he should be needed.

Mr. McCarthy was driving west on Eleventh street at the time the accident occurred, having in the wagon with him Louis Noyes, superintendent of the Schwartzhill & Balabaner Packing Company, who had been turned from one of the buildings of this packing company, and pursued his drive, Reporter McCarthy, who was driving toward the scene of the fire with the fire engine, in case he should be needed.

Mr. McCarthy was driving west on Eleventh street at the time the accident occurred, having in the wagon with him Louis Noyes, superintendent of the Schwartzhill & Balabaner Packing Company, who had been turned from one of the buildings of this packing company, and pursued his drive, Reporter McCarthy, who was driving toward the scene of the fire with the fire engine, in case he should be needed.

Mr. McCarthy was driving west on Eleventh street at the time the accident occurred, having in the wagon with him Louis Noyes, superintendent of the Schwartzhill & Balabaner Packing Company, who had been turned from one of the buildings of this packing company, and pursued his drive, Reporter McCarthy, who was driving toward the scene of the fire with the fire engine, in case he should be needed.

Mr. McCarthy was driving west on Eleventh street at the time the accident occurred, having in the wagon with him Louis Noyes, superintendent of the Schwartzhill & Balabaner Packing Company, who had been turned from one of the buildings of this packing company, and pursued his drive, Reporter McCarthy, who was driving toward the scene of the fire with the fire engine, in case he should be needed.

Mr. McCarthy was driving west on Eleventh street at the time the accident occurred, having in the wagon with him Louis Noyes, superintendent of the Schwartzhill & Balabaner Packing Company, who had been turned from one of the buildings of this packing company, and pursued his drive, Reporter McCarthy, who was driving toward the scene of the fire with the fire engine, in case he should be needed.

Mr. McCarthy was driving west on Eleventh street at the time the accident occurred, having in the wagon with him Louis Noyes, superintendent of the Schwartzhill & Balabaner Packing Company, who had been turned from one of the buildings of this packing company, and pursued his drive, Reporter McCarthy, who was driving toward the scene of the fire with the fire engine, in case he should be needed.

Mr. McCarthy was driving west on Eleventh street at the time the accident occurred, having in the wagon with him Louis Noyes, superintendent of the Schwartzhill & Balabaner Packing Company, who had been turned from one of the buildings of this packing company, and pursued his drive, Reporter McCarthy, who was driving toward the scene of the fire with the fire engine, in case he should be needed.

Mr. McCarthy was driving west on Eleventh street at the time the accident occurred, having in the wagon with him Louis Noyes, superintendent of the Schwartzhill & Balabaner Packing Company, who had been turned from one of the buildings of this packing company, and pursued his drive, Reporter McCarthy, who was driving toward the scene of the fire with the fire engine, in case he should be needed.

AUCTION

DAILY: 2 P. M.—7:30 P. M.

Our Entire Stock!

Such an Opportunity Never Before Offered in Western Missouri.

DIAMONDS, WATCHES, JEWELRY, SUNDRIES.

Nothing Reserved. All Goods at Your Own Price.

Cady & Olmstead,

1024 and 1026 Walnut Street.

COLLEGE ORATORS CONTEST.

REPRESENTATIVES OF MISSOURI INSTITUTIONS IN VERBAL BATTLE.

First Honors Going to C. C. Seligman, of Central College, White River, Mo., and Second Place to a Young Crowd.

The Auditorium was crowded last night as a young man of students from seven of the principal colleges of the state, the occasion being the annual intercollegiate oratorical contest, the winner of which will represent the state of Missouri at the interstate contest to be held this year at Topeka, Mo. T. T. Marshall, of William Jewell college, followed with a still more formidable oration, and the result of the evening was a victory for the students of the state of Missouri.

Mr. Marshall, of William Jewell college, followed with a still more formidable oration, and the result of the evening was a victory for the students of the state of Missouri.

Mr. Marshall, of William Jewell college, followed with a still more formidable oration, and the result of the evening was a victory for the students of the state of Missouri.

Mr. Marshall, of William Jewell college, followed with a still more formidable oration, and the result of the evening was a victory for the students of the state of Missouri.

Mr. Marshall, of William Jewell college, followed with a still more formidable oration, and the result of the evening was a victory for the students of the state of Missouri.

Mr. Marshall, of William Jewell college, followed with a still more formidable oration, and the result of the evening was a victory for the students of the state of Missouri.

COLLEGE ORATORS CONTEST.

REPRESENTATIVES OF MISSOURI INSTITUTIONS IN VERBAL BATTLE.

First Honors Going to C. C. Seligman, of Central College, White River, Mo., and Second Place to a Young Crowd.

The Auditorium was crowded last night as a young man of students from seven of the principal colleges of the state, the occasion being the annual intercollegiate oratorical contest, the winner of which will represent the state of Missouri at the interstate contest to be held this year at Topeka, Mo. T. T. Marshall, of William Jewell college, followed with a still more formidable oration, and the result of the evening was a victory for the students of the state of Missouri.

Mr. Marshall, of William Jewell college, followed with a still more formidable oration, and the result of the evening was a victory for the students of the state of Missouri.

Mr. Marshall, of William Jewell college, followed with a still more formidable oration, and the result of the evening was a victory for the students of the state of Missouri.

Mr. Marshall, of William Jewell college, followed with a still more formidable oration, and the result of the evening was a victory for the students of the state of Missouri.

Mr. Marshall, of William Jewell college, followed with a still more formidable oration, and the result of the evening was a victory for the students of the state of Missouri.

Mr. Marshall, of William Jewell college, followed with a still more formidable oration, and the result of the evening was a victory for the students of the state of Missouri.

COLLEGE ORATORS CONTEST.

REPRESENTATIVES OF MISSOURI INSTITUTIONS IN VERBAL BATTLE.

First Honors Going to C. C. Seligman, of Central College, White River, Mo., and Second Place to a Young Crowd.

The Auditorium was crowded last night as a young man of students from seven of the principal colleges of the state, the occasion being the annual intercollegiate oratorical contest, the winner of which will represent the state of Missouri at the interstate contest to be held this year at Topeka, Mo. T. T. Marshall, of William Jewell college, followed with a still more formidable oration, and the result of the evening was a victory for the students of the state of Missouri.

Mr. Marshall, of William Jewell college, followed with a still more formidable oration, and the result of the evening was a victory for the students of the state of Missouri.

Mr. Marshall, of William Jewell college, followed with a still more formidable oration, and the result of the evening was a victory for the students of the state of Missouri.

Mr. Marshall, of William Jewell college, followed with a still more formidable oration, and the result of the evening was a victory for the students of the state of Missouri.

Mr. Marshall, of William Jewell college, followed with a still more formidable oration, and the result of the evening was a victory for the students of the state of Missouri.

Mr. Marshall, of William Jewell college, followed with a still more formidable oration, and the result of the evening was a victory for the students of the state of Missouri.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

A Newborn's Parade.

Colonel Hagedorn, the newborn's friend, will have a newborn's procession in the city at 2 P. M. today. The boys will gather at the city hall, where Colonel Hagedorn will speak after which they will march through the principal streets of the city. They will be supplied with new silk banners by Emory, Hink, Thayer & Co.

Salvation Army Services.

There will be a "drunkards' home" service at the Salvation Army headquarters this evening.

Ask to see the name "River-side" or "Royal" engraved on the plates, and always the word "Waltham."

For Sale by all Retail Jewelers.

Children of John Nash Missing.

Mr. John Nash, of Pittsburg and Agnes, reported to the police yesterday that his little son and daughter, aged respectively 11 and 13 years of age, had disappeared.

Women's Game of Basket Ball.

There will be a game of basket ball between the Y. M. C. A. and Alpha at the Y. M. C. A. rooms, Monday night.